MiFo LGBT FILM FESTIVAL PRESENTS "DADDY," FOLLOWED BY Q & A WITH MIA MATTHEWS, ACTRESS, CO-PRODUCER

Thursday, March 17, @7 pm at O Cinema Wynwood

Colin is a stud. Stew not so much. Inseparable since college, see what happens when Colin falls for a much younger guy. Don't miss this comedy, drama and mystery rolled into one. Declared a hit at the 2015 MiFo LGBT Film Festival Fort Lauderdale screening.

(February 23, 2016) --- As a prelude to the April 22nd opening of the Miami edition of the MiFo LGBT Film Festival (www.MiFoFilm.com) organizers present Daddy, the third in its 2016 MiFo Miami GLOW series, on Thursday, March 17 at 7 pm. The screening takes place at O Cinema Wynwood, 90 NW 29th Street, Miami. Tickets may be purchased at: <http://tinyurl.com/h9qbeqe>

Colin McCormack thinks he has it all - a great job, a steady stream of hot younger guys, and a best friend whose devotion he takes for granted. But when a charming intern sweeps him off his feet, Colin sees a chance for something more: A family of his own. What he discovers instead is a shattering secret that may cost Colin everything.

By turns funny, heartbreaking and hopeful, Daddy explores the universal need for love and connection, and the evolving understanding of "family" in today's rapidly changing world.

Starring Gerald McCullouch and Dan Via, Daddy has been recognized with the following awards: Best Actor for Gerald McCullouch, California Independent Film Festival 2015 Slate Award; and Best Drama Feature, Out on Film, Atlanta, US 2015 Audience Award.

Following the screening, Daddy actress/co-producer Mia Matthews will lead a Q & A with the audience. Matthews recently co-starred in Rapture, Blister, Burn at the Adrienne Arsht Center and portrayed Desdemona in Every Witch Way (2014) and Every Witch Way: Spellbound (2014).

This screening is sponsored by Breaking Glass Pictures.
